

The Joint Commission's National Gold Seal of Approval

The Little Clinic is accredited from The Joint Commission for their dedication to delivering the highest quality healthcare to patients. The Joint Commission evaluates and accredits more than 16,000 health care organizations and programs in the United States. They are an independent, not-for-profit organization that is the nation's predominant standard-setting and accrediting body in health care. Since 1951, The Joint Commission has maintained state-of-the-art standards that focus on improving the quality and safety of care provided by health care organizations. In order to maintain The Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval™, The Little Clinic must undergo an on-site survey by a Joint Commission survey team at least every three years.
